SELF ACCEPTANCE

- Words are a true indication of self acceptance
- Your words will tell if you are satisfied with who you are
- Your words will tell the level of trust you have in your high power
- Your trust in your high power will influence the confidence you have in yourself
- Then your mind will have a positive outlook to life
- And your lips will make utterance of positivity towards life irrespective of its varying circumstances

SITUATIONS WILL NOT MATTER

- David came as young boy
- Not only a young boy but a shepherd boy
- He is determined to fight a war warrior
- Someone who was born into military training
- He is wearing war garments while David is wearing a shirt and pants
- He is carrying advanced war tools while David has a sling and 5 stones
- But David opens his mouth and tells the giant that I am going to cut your head and give it to the birds of the air

- King Saul tried to clothe him with his war armour
- David removed it saying he was not used to it
- I am telling you this time, do not try to be someone else when you face your battle
- Do not waste time wishing you were somebody else
- Believe that with your high power on your back, you are sufficient
- Utter words of victory over situations that come your way
- It can be deadlines that come in numbers when you already have work pressure

YOU ARE SUFFICIENT

- It can be financial crises at the time when situations need your financial input
- Avoid saying demeaning words that give the situation power to break you
- Avoid saying demeaning words about yourself
- The truth is that trouble will not last always.
- The sun will rise again
- So mind your words
- Believe that you are sufficient
